

Got Rid of My Corns With Magic "Gets-It"

Simplest Corn Cure in the World—No Pain, No Fuss. New, Sure Way.

When corns make you almost "die with your boots on," when you've soaked them and picked them and sliced them, when corns swell salves, and tapes, bandages, and plasters that make corns pop-eyed have only made your corns grow faster, just hold your heart a moment and figure this: Put two drops of "Gets-It" on the corn. It dries at once. You can put your shoe and stocking on right over it. The corn is doomed. It makes the corn come off clear and clean. It's the new, easy way. Nothing to stick or press on the corn. You can wear smaller shoes. You'll be a joy-walker. No pain, no trouble. Accept no substitutes. "Gets-It" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Why Have Corns At All When "Gets-It" Removes Them the New, Dead-Sure Way?

Sold in Hopkinsville and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by L. L. Elgin and J. O. Cook.

APPOINTMENTS OF COHEN CONFIRMED

Despite Union Labor's Protest Selection of Inspector Nelson is Approved.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 2.—Commissioner of Agriculture Matt Cohen has announced that Gov. Stanley has approved his appointees in the Department of Labor: Jack Nelson, of Paducah, chief factory inspector; Omer Stubbs, of Newport, assistant; Mrs. Charles Hamilton Musgrove, of Louisville, chief woman inspector, and Miss Mynne Wagers, of Lexington, assistant. Commissioner Cohen has notified them to meet him in Louisville for a conference.

Louisville labor leaders fought Nelson's appointment and protested with the Governor; but when it was established that Nelson is a union man in good standing and previously had factory experience as a boilermaker, Gov. Stanley decided that his authority to approve the appointments extended no further than to ascertain the qualifications of the appointees.

SICK BOY

Is Strapped to Horse and Carried to Hospital Through Wisconsin Blizzard.

Ashland, Wis., Feb. 2.—After passing through the worst blizzard of the winter Edward Ellingson, a Birch Lake farmer, and his fourteen-year-old son, arrived here Sunday. The boy immediately was operated upon for an acute case of appendicitis.

The boy became so ill Thursday night that his father telephoned to an Ashland physician and was advised that the boy probably had acute appendicitis, and that he should be taken to a hospital without delay.

Ellingson placed the boy on a horse, the roads being in such condition that a team could not get through, and started out in a blizzard.

The boy became so ill that he had to be strapped to the animal's back. The horse floundered through the blizzard, and Ellingson followed, holding to the animal's tail and trusting to the horse's instinct to find civilization.

They finally arrived at a railroad track, Ellingson flagged the first train which passed and they came here.

FINANCIAL RELIEF FOR STATE IN PROPOSED LEGISLATION

University Appropriations From School Fund Would Release $237,000.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 2.—The bill introduced in the Senate by Senator C. F. Montgomery to pay the annual appropriations for the State University and Eastern and Western Normal Schools out of the State school fund, he said, is designed to relieve the financial condition of the State. It would release $237,000 for use of defraying the current expenses of the Commonwealth.

The State University draws $87,000 annually out of the general expenditures fund and the normal schools $75,000 each.

At present the entire State school fund estimated for this year at $3,955,221.98, into which 26½ of the 50-cent State tax levy goes is used in paying the salaries of teachers and the office expenses of the Department of Education. There are approximately 11,000 teachers and the money is apportioned to the county and city schools on a per capita basis of scholastic population.

The money this year was apportioned on a per capita of $5.25, the scholastic population being 744,077. This was an increase of 95 cents over last year and on the strength of it the school term was extended to seven months, giving the teachers an extra month's work at full pay. Senator Montgomery said he realizes that there will be bitter opposition to his measure, but that the extra month comes after Christmas holidays, when roads are bad and country children will not attend, while many teachers prefer going to school themselves after the holidays.

Another bill has been introduced, transferring the balance of the dog tax fund remaining after paying for sheep killed by dogs, from the school fund to the Department of Agriculture as an emergency fund for such situations as arose during the foot and mouth disease, when livestock had to be slaughtered at the public expense. The fund the last year amounted to $50,000.

J. M. CAYCE'S WILL PROBATED

The will of the late James M. Cayce was probated yesterday. The instrument bears date of April 28, 1913, and was witnessed by A. H. Eckles and John Stites. To his grandchildren, Nellie, James, Mattie Sue, Edna and Clifton Cayce he bequeathed $500 each, and to his grandchild, Margaret Irene Cayce, $250. William Fox, a faithful family servant, is left $150. All personal property of every description is left to his wife, Mrs. Ella Cayce, to be hers absolutely. His farm of 400 acres is left to the use and benefit of his wife during her life. At her death the trust estate is to be divided into two parts, the income from one part to go to Wheeler Cayce during his life, and at his death to be divided equally between Nellie, James, Mattie Sue and Goebel Cayce. The remaining half interest is to be held in trust, and at his wife's death it goes for the use and benefit of his son, Elbridge Cayce, and the income therefrom to be paid him. At the death of the son this share is to be divided into five parts and distributed, as follows: Two parts to Edna Cayce, two parts to Clifton Cayce and one part to Margaret I. Cayce.

Mary T. Lindsay, a former wife, left four children, Wheeler and Elbridge Cayce and R. S. Lindsay and Mrs. Columbus Gregory, the last two by a previous marriage. Notes of $500 given to each some time ago, are payable at his death. The remainder of the estate including $5,000 insurance policy, is to be divided between his wife and Wheeler and Elbridge Cayce. The Planters Bank & Trust Co. is named as executor.
